

World Parcel Alliance

Connecting Our Members, Delivering the World.

About Us

World Parcel Alliance (WPA), where we've harnessed a pioneering vision to revolutionize and uplift the express delivery and logistics industry. At our core, WPA stands as the go-to partner for major national and international e-commerce giants such as Alibaba, Wish, Shein, and others. Our mission is to empower these industry leaders to tap into fresh markets and deliver seamless experiences to their customers.

To ensure the highest standards, every WPA member undergoes a rigorous screening process, allowing only top-tier companies committed to excellence in final mile delivery services to gain entry. When you collaborate with a WPA member company, rest assured you're working with the best in the business.

Our network is powered by renowned courier firms known for their capacity to manage large volumes of compact parcel shipments with finesse and precision.

But our commitment doesn't end there. We understand that each member has unique needs and a distinct business outlook. That's why we provide a wide range of value to cater to every member's specific requirements.

Whether you're a small, local courier or a large multi-regional or global delivery company, the World Parcel Alliance network offers opportunities for your business to grow. No matter where in the world you need assistance, WPA has the resources and best-in-class courier services to help you stay competitive.

Building your global network of opportunities has never been easier. With WPA's expertise and experience, we're here to propel your business forward. Choose WPA and elevate your express delivery and logistics experience to new heights.
